Hoofland's Column.

YOU ALL HAVE HEARD OF HOOFLAND'S GERMAN BITTERS, AND HOOFLAND'S GERMAN TONIC.

Prepared by Dr. C. M. Jackson, Philadelphia. Their introduction into this country from Germany occurred in 1825. THEY CURED YOUR FATHERS AND MOTHERS,

And will cure you and your children. They are entirely different from the many preparations now in the country called Bitters or Tonics. They are no tavern preparation, or anything like one; but good, honest, reliable medicines. They are The greatest known remedies for Liver Complaint, DYSPEPSIA, Nervous Debility, JAUNDICE, Diseases of the Kidneys, ERUPTIONS OF THE SKIN, and all Diseases arising from a Disordered Liver, stomach, or IMPURITY OF THE BLOOD.

Constipation, Flatulence, Inward Piles, Fullness of Blood to the Head, Acidity of the Stomach, Nausea, Heartburn, Disgust for Food, Fullness or Weight in the Stomach, Sour Eructations, Sinking or Fluttering at the Pit of the Stomach, Swimming of the Head, Hurried or Difficult Breathing, Fluttering at the Heart, Choking or Suffocating Sensations when in a Lying Posture, Dimness of Vision, Dots or Webs before the sight, Dull Pain in the Head, Deficiency of Perspiration, Yellowness of the Skin and Eyes, Pain in the Side, Back, Chest, Limbs, etc., Sudden Flushes of Heat, Burning in the Flesh, Constant Imaginings of Evil and Great Depression of Spirits.

All these indicate diseases of the Liver or Digestive Organs, combined with impure blood.

HOOFLAND'S GERMAN BITTERS

is entirely vegetable and contains no liquor. It is a compound of Fluid Extracts. The Roots, Herbs, and Barks from which these extracts are made, are gathered in Germany. All the medicinal virtueus are extracted from them by a scientific Chemist. These extracts are then forwarded to this country to be used expressly for the manufacture of these Bitters. There is no alcoholic substance of any kind used in compounding the Bitters, hence it is the only Bitters that can be used in cases where alcoholic stimulants are not advisable.

HOOFLAND'S GERMAN TONIC

is a combination of all the ingredients of the Bitters, with PURE Santa Cruz Rum, Orange, etc. It is used for the same diseases as the Bitters, in case where some pure alcoholic stimulus is required. You will bear in mind that these remedies are entirely different from any others advertised for the cure of the diseases named, these being scientific preparations of medicinal extracts, while the others are mere decoctions of rum in some form. The TONIC is decidedly one of the most pleasant and agreeable remedies ever offered to the public. Its taste is exquisite. It is a pleasure to take it, while its life-giving, exhilarating, and medicinal qualities have caused it to be known as the greatest of all tonics.

DEBILITY.

There is no medicine equal to Hoofland's German Bitters or Tonic in cases of Debility. They impart a tone and vigor to the whole system, strengthen the appetite, cause an enjoyment of the food, enable the stomach to digest it, purify the blood, give a good, sound, healthy complexion, eradicate the yellow tinge from the eye, impart a bloom to the cheeks, and change the patient from a short-breathed, emaciated, weak, and nervous invalid, to a full-faced, stout, and vigorous person.

Weak and Delicate Children are made strong by using the Bitters or Tonic. In fact, they are Family Medicines. They can be administered with perfect safety to a child three months old, the most delicate female, or a man of ninety.

These remedies are the best

ever known and will cure all diseases resulting from bad blood. Keep your blood pure; keep your Liver in order; keep your digestive organs in a sound, healthy condition, by the use of these remedies, and no diseases will ever assail you. The best men in the country recommend them. If years of honest reputation go for anything, you must try these preparations.

FROM HON. GEO. W. WOODWARD,

Chief Justice of the Supreme Court of Pennsylvania.

PHILADELPHIA, March 16, 1867.

I find that "Hoofland's German Bitters" is not an intoxicating beverage, but is a good tonic, useful in disorders of the digestive organs, and of great benefit in cases of debility and want of nervous action in the system.

Yours Truly, GEO. W. WOODWARD.

FROM HON. JAMES TAOMPSON.

Judge of the Supreme Court of Pennsylvania.

PHILADELPHIA, April 28, 1866.

I consider "Hoofland's German Bitters" a valuable medicine in case of attacks of Indigestion or Dyspepsia. I can certify this from my experience of it. Yours, with respect, JAMES THOMPSON.

FROM REV. JOSEPH H. KENNARD, D. D.,

Pastor of the Tenth Baptist Church, Philadelphia.

DR. JACKSON—DEAR SIR:—I have been frequently requested to connect my name with recommendations of different kinds of medicines, but regarding the practice as out of my appropriate sphere, I have in all cases declined; but with a clear proof in various instances, and particularly in my own family, of the usefulness of Dr. Hoofland's German Bitters, I depart for once from my usual course, to express my full conviction that for general debility of the system, and especially for Liver Complaint, it is a safe and valuable preparation. In some cases it may fail; but usually, I doubt not, it will be very beneficial to those who suffer from the above causes. Yours, very respectfully, J. H. KENNARD, Eigth, below Coates Street.

CAUTION.

Hoofland's German Remedies are counterfeited. The Genuine have the signature of C. M. JACKSON on the front of the outside wrapper of each bottle, and the name of the article blown in each bottle. All others are counterfeit.

CORRESPONDENCE.

DEAR GAZETTE:—The Report of the House Committee on the Washburne Donnelly difficulty, which Mr. Eldridge, of Wisconsin, mildly termed "ambiguous," is one of the most remarkable documents, produced by remarkable members of Congress, during this very remarkable age.

The House returns in a body from the Senate, where the President of the United States is being tried, before the High Court of Impeachment for high crimes and misdemeanors, prominent among which is the charge of having spoken disrespectfully of the Congress of the United States. This imposing and immaculate body had scarcely returned to its own Chamber, before Mr. Donnelly, of Minnesota, an Impeacher, rises to a point of order, and charges Mr. Washburne, of Illinois, another Impeacher, with having violated the rules of the House, of social intercourse, of everything that was good, decent or respectable. Washburne replies, charging the Minnesotian with having changed his name to escape the Penitentiary, with being a renegade to his God and Religion, with being concerned in all schemes of plunder and corruption, etc. Despite the efforts of a few of their fellows to stop the family broil, knowing the truth of the old adage about thieves falling out, they still continued. The blood of the Yahoos was up, and they continued to hurl excrement in each others faces and the faces of their fellow-members, until the very air was tainted, until the olfactories of all not trained in Boston or Oberlin, were overborne by the truly 'loil' stench. How eminently characteristic of the party of morai ideas and holy practices! How fitting the actors, time and place. The slums and sewers of the worst cankerspots of the worst modern cities, could not furnish such an amount of villainous vituperation. Epithets that are but sparingly used in Bawdy and Boosing Kens, flew through the Halls of Legislation in more than bacchanal profusion. Familiarity, with vice and crime, at least with the worst of their vocabularies, was more apparent than with the language or laws of Commerce or the "quips and quirks" of the legal gentleman. Each Hon. gentleman succeeded in proving his adversary—and himself—a most villainous, gangrened scoundrel, totally unfit to occupy any position of honor and profit, to breathe the same air with, whom, is contamination to all honest, honorable men and such as no other civilized country under Heaven would allow to retain their places for a moment after such and expose.

But what can we expect or hope from a Nation ruled by such characters as Butler, of Massachusetts, and Logan, of Illinois, and their worthy confreres. Male prostitutes, who, "in plying their vocation," have sacrificed every thought, feeling and impulse characteristic of the gentleman, and are notoriously willing and anxious to continue.

"Give us an ounce of Civet, Good Apothecary."

Revenon a Nous Mouotus, we have a few words to say yet on the fight of the Yahoos, or rather of the action of that white-washing committee, headed by Poland, of Vermont.

"A decent respect for the opinions of mankind required" them to appoint a Committee of Investigation, organized and instructed to do for Washburne and Donnelly what the Committee of the Pennsylvania Legislature of a few years ago, headed by an illustrious citizen and blood-stained Warrior of ye ancient Borough of Bedford, was intended to do and did do, for Simon Cameron, that is white-wash him.

This Committee, like the other, was authorized to send for persons and papers, and before commencing they let it be understood that the papers most acceptable to modern investigators, and Impeachers were Greenbacks. As for persons, the absence of Sanford Canover, was deeply to be regretted and interfered sadly with the working of their committees, particularly the Smelling Committees, but as long as Ashley, of Ohio, and Butler, of Massachusetts, remained in Congress and ruled in National Affairs, they had hopes for the "God and Morality" party, and hoped to be able by "strict attention to business to merit a continuance of the patronage so liberally bestowed," &c. (see Small bills).

The Committee met on the 14th May. Washburne and Donnelly appeared personally and by Attorney. It was announced to the Committee that the language used on the floor of the House had been drawn and had only been spoken in a Pickwickian sense. Nothing remained therefore for them to examine but the letter of the Illinoisan, in which he charged that Donnelly had run away from Philadelphia between two days, and changed his name to escape the Penitentiary, that he had betrayed his God and his religion, and been steeped in corruption and infamy ever since he had been in Congress, identified with schemes of plunder, every one of which was sure of his support. This is the sum and substance of the Washburne letter, I don't pretend to give the words.

It seems to have been written in a Pickwickian spirit, if not with Pickwickian sense, and this sapient Committee decide they cannot investigate it, &c. And ask that the Committee be discharged and the Resolution tabled, and so ends the most wanton, outrageous and disgraceful scene that has occurred in a deliberative body, since the world began. There is not a tribe of Savages on earth, feeding on locusts, lizards, cold mare meat, or train oil, that would submit to the deep disgrace of being led by such men, and yet the once proud, free and boastful American Nation, bears this and infinitely more from this 'loil' party.

Let us stop our Missions, quit the Tract business, stop sending Bibles and Preachers through the world, and try to clean up before our own doors, as they did in Jerusalem.

A KIND HEART.

A True French Romance.

Knowing that the general class of readers are more interested in tales founded upon facts than fiction, we give the following sketch, which, although rivaling many of those romantic pictures drawn by fiction writers, is vouched for by an old English journal as being founded upon a real life occurrence, and merely polished by the pen of the writer. A newly married couple had just come from the altar, and were about starting on a bridal tour, as the following conversation took place:

The newly married husband took one of his brides's hands in his own. "Allow me," said he, "thus to hold your hand, for I dread lest you should quit me. I tremble lest this should be an illusion. It seems to me that I am the hero of one of those fairy tales which amused me in my boyhood, and which, in the hour of happiness, some malignant fairy steps ever in to throw the victim into grief and despair."

"Re-assure yourself, my dear Frederic," said the lady. "I was yesterday the widow of Sir James Melton, and to-day I am Madame de la Tour, your wife. Banish from your mind the idea of the fairy. This is not a fiction but a history."

Frederic de la Tour had, indeed some reason to suppose that his fortunes were the work of a fairy's wand; for, in the course of one or two short months, by a seemingly inexplicable stroke of fortune, he had been raised to happiness and wealth beyond his desires. A friendless orphan, twenty-five years old, he had been the holder of a clerkship which brought him a scanty livelihood, when, one day, as he passed along the Rue St. Honore, a rich equipage stopped suddenly before him, and a young and elegant woman called from it to him, "Monsieur, Monsieur," said she.

At the same time, on a given signal, the footman leaped down, opened the carriage door, and invited Frederic to enter. He did so, though with some hesitation and surprise, and the carriage started off at full speed.

"I have received your note, sir," said the lady to M. de la Tour, in a very soft and sweet voice; "and, in spite of refusal, I hope yet to see you to-morrow evening at my party."

"To see me, Madame!" cried Frederic.

"Yes, sir, you——Ah! a thousand pardons," continued she, with an air of confusion. "I see my mistake. Forgive me, sir! you are so like a particular friend! What can you think of me? Yet the resemblance is so striking that it would have deceived any one."

Of course Frederic replied politely to the apologies.

Just as they were terminated the carriage stopped at the door of a splendid mansion, and the young man could do no more than offer his arm to Lady Melton, as the fair stranger announced herself to be. Though English in name, the fair lady, nevertheless, was evidently of French origin. Her extreme beauty charmed M. de la Tour, and he congratulated himself upon the happy accident which had gained him such an acquaintance. Lady Melton loaded him with civilities, and he was not ill-looking, certainly; but he had not the vanity to think his appearance was magnificent; and his plaid and scanty wardrobe prevented him from doing credit to his tailor.

He accepted an invitation to the party spoken of. Invitations to other parties followed; and, to be brief, the young man soon found himself an established visitant at the house of Lady Melton. She, a rich and beautiful widow, was encircled by admirers.—One by one they disappeared, giving way to the poor clerk, who seemed to engross the lady's whole thoughts. Finally, almost by her own asking, they were betrothed. Frederic used to look sometimes at the glass which hung in his humble lodging, and wonder to what circumstances he owed his happy fortune. He used to conclude his meditations by the reflection that assuredly the lovely widow was fulfilling some unavoidable award of destiny. As for his own feelings the lady was lovely, young, rich, accomplished, and noted for her sensibility and virtue—could he hesitate?

When the marriage contract was signed his astonishment was redoubled, for he found himself, through the lady's love, the possessor of large property both in England and France. The presence of friends had certified and sanctioned the union, yet, as has been stated, Frederic felt some strange fears, in spite of himself, lest all should prove an illusion, and he grasped his bride's hand as if to prevent her being spirited away from his view.

"My dear Frederic," said the lady, smilingly, "sit down beside me and let me say something to you."

The young husband obeyed, but did not quit her hand. She began, "Once on a time"—Frederic started, and half seriously exclaimed, "Heavens! it is a fairy tale!" "Listen to me, foolish boy," resumed the lady. "There was once a young girl, the daughter of parents well-born, and at one time rich, but who had declined sadly in circumstances. Until her fifteenth year the family lived in Lyons, depending entirely for subsistence upon the labor of her father. Some better hopes sprung up and induced them to come to Paris; but it is difficult to stop in the descent down the path of misfortune. For three years the father struggled hard against poverty, and at last died in the hospital. The mother soon followed; and the young girl was left alone, the occupant of a garret of which the rent was not paid. If there were any fairy connected with the story this was the moment for her appearance; but none came. The young girl remained alone, without friends or protectors, harassed by debts which she could not pay, and seeking in vain for some species of employment. She found none; still it was necessary for her to have food. One day passed on which she tasted nothing. The night that followed was sleepless. Next day was again passed without food, and the poor girl was forced into the resolution of begging. She covered her head with her mother's veil, the only heritage she had received, and stopping so to simulate age, she went out into the street.—When there, she held out her hand. Alas! the hand was white, and youthful, and delicate. She felt the necessity of covering it up in the folds of the veil, as if it had been leprosied. Thus concealed, the poor girl held out her hand to a young woman who passed—one more happy than herself—and asked, 'A sou—a single sou—to get bread!' The petition was unheeded. An old man passed. The mendicant thought that experience of the distresses of life might have softened one like him, but she was in error. Experience had only hardened, not softened, his heart.

"The night was cold and rainy, and the hour had come when the night police appeared to keep the streets clear of all mendicants and suspicious characters. At this period the shrinking girl took courage once more to hold out her hand to a passer by. It was a young man. He stopped at the silent appeal, and diving into his pockets pulled out a piece of money, which he threw to her, being apparently afraid to touch a thing so miserable. Just as he did this, one of the police said to the girl:

"Ah, I have caught you, have I?—you are begging. To the office with you! Come along!"

"The young man interposed. He took hold hastily of the mendicant, of her whom he had before seemed afraid to touch, and, addressing himself to the policemen, said reprovingly: 'This woman is not a beggar. No; she is—she is one whom I know.' But, sir, said the officer——. 'I tell you that she is an acquaintance of mine,' repeated the young stranger. Then turning to the girl, whom he took for an old and feeble woman, he continued:

"Come along, my good dame, and permit me to see you safely to the end of the street. Giving his arm to the unfortunate girl, he then led her away, saying: 'Here is a piece of a hundred sous. It is all I have—take it, poor woman.'"

"The crown of a hundred sous passed from your hand to mine," continued the lady, "and as you walked along, supporting my steps, I then, through my veil, distinctly saw your face and figure"—

"My figure!" said Frederic, in amazement.

"Yes, my friend, your figure," returned his wife, "it was me that you gave alms on that night. It was my life—my honor, perhaps—that you then saved!"

"You a mendicant—you, so young, so beautiful, and now so rich," cried Frederic.

"Yes, my dearest husband," replied the lady, "I have in my life received alms—once only—and from you; and those alms have decided my fate for life.

"On the day following that miserable night an old woman, in whom I had inspired some sentiments of pity, enabled me to enter as seamstress in a respectable house. Cheerfulness returned to me with labor. I had the good fortune to beccome a favorite with the mistress whom I served, and, indeed, I did my best, by unwearied diligence and care, to merit her favor. She was often visited by people in high life. One day Sir James Melton, an Englishman of great property, came to the establishment along with a party of ladies. He returned again. He spoke with my mistress, and learnt that I was of good family; in short learnt my whole history. The result was, that he sat down by my side one day and asked me plainly if I would marry him.

"Marry you!" cried I, in surprise.

"Sir James Melton was a man of sixty, tall, pale and feeble-looking. In answer to my exclamation of astonishment, he said: 'Yes, I ask if you will be my wife? I am rich, but have no comfort—no happiness. My relatives seem to yearh to see me in my grave. I have ailments which require a degree of kindly care that is not to be bought from servants. I have heard your story, and believe you to be one who will support prosperity as well as you have adversity. I make my proposal sincerely, and hope that you will agree to it."

"A that time Frederic," continued the lady, "I loved you; I had seen you but once, but that once was too memorable for me ever to forget it, and something always insinuated to me that we were destined to pass through life together. At the bottom of my soul, I believe this. Yet every one around me pressed me to accept of the offer made me, and the thought struck me that I might one day make you wealthy. At length my main objection to Sir James Melton's proposal lay in a disinclination to make myself the instrument of vengeance in Sir Jame's hands against relatives whom he might dislike without good grounds. The objection, when stated, only increased his anxiety for my consent, and finally, under the impression that it would be after all carrying romance the length of folly to reject the advantageous settlement offered to me, I consented to Sir Jame's proposal.

"This part of the story, Frederic, is really like a fairy tale. I, a poor orphan, penniless, became the wife of one of the richest baronets of England. Dressed in silks, and sparkling with jewels, I could now pass in my carriage through the very streets where, a few months before, I had stood in the rain and darkness—a mendicant?"

"Happy Sir James!" cried M. de la Tour, at this part of the story; "he could prove his love by enriching you."

"He was happy," resumed the lady. "Our marriage, so strangely assorted, proved much more conducive, it is probable, to his own comfort than if he had wedded one with whom all the parade of settlements, of pin money, would have been necessary.

"Never, I believe, did he for an instant repent of our union. I, on my part, conceived myself bound to do my best for the solace of his declining years; and he, on his part, thought it incumbent on him to provide for my future welfare. He died, leaving me a large part of his substance—as much indeed, as I could prevail upon myself to accept. I was now a widow, and from the hour to which I became so, I vowed never again to give my hand to man, excepting to him who had succored me in my hour of distress, and whose remembrance had ever been preserved in the recess of my heart. But how to discover that man? Ah, unconscious ingrate! to make no endeavor to come in the way of one who sought to love and enrich you! I knew not your name. In vain I looked for you at balls, assemblies, and theatres. You went not there. Ah, how I longed to meet you!"

As the lady spoke she took from her neck a riband, to which was attached a piece of a hundred sous. "It is the same—the very same which you gave me," said she, presenting it to Frederic; "by pledging it I got a little bread from a neighbor, and I earned enough afterward in time to permit me to recover it. I vowed never to part from it.

"Ah, how happy I was, Frederic, when I saw you in the street! The excuse which I made for stoping you was the first that rose in my mind. But what tremors I felt even afterward, lest you should have been already married! In that case you would never have heard aught of this fairy tale, though I would have taken some means to serve and enrich you. I would have gone to England, and there passed my days in regret, perhaps, but still in peace. But happily, it was to be otherwise. You were single."

Frederic de la Tour was now awakened, as it were, to the full certainty of his happiness. What he could not but before look upon as a sort of freak of fancy in a young and wealthy woman, was now proved to be the result of deep and kindly feeling, most honorable to her who entertained it. The heart of the young husband overflowed with gratitude and affection to the lovely and noble-hearted being who had given herself to him. He was too happy for some time to speak. His wife first broke silence.

"So Frederic," said she gayly, "you see that if I am a fairy it is you who has given me the wand—the talsman—that has effected all!"

RELIGION is common sense, and the reason why men and women do not see it is, because they put out their eyes by indulging themselves in evil.

MISS Hettie Robinson, the famous lady of the Howland will case, has just died in Paris. If her child lives it will inherit, when of age, $35,000,000. That child ought to be willing to stay on earth a while."

EURIPIDES was one of the very few men who have been choked to death by the seed of a grape, but a great many die every day from swallowing the juice.

"You cruel man!" exclaimed Mrs. Jones, "my tears have no effect on you at all" "Well drop them, my dear," said Jones.

A PANTHER, supposed to be a member of the Ku-Klux, was killed in Mobile some days since.

WHAT WILL THE DEMOCRATS DO?

It has been asked, "What will the Democrats do if we help to place them in power?" The question is so well and appropriately answered and so satisfactory summed up, by Gen. W. A. Gorman, of Minnessota, in a late speech, that we insert the answer here:

"If the Democracy get power in the Government, they will reduce the tariff tax on all your tea, and what you drink and wear.

"They will restore the Union, and turn over all the Southern States' expenses to be paid by the South alone.

"We will turn over and abolish ten thousand abolition Freedmen's Bureau officeholders, and save millions of dollars to the people's pockets.

"We will bid the South to support themselves and go to raising cotton and sugar, and we will continue to raise produce to feed them.

"We will pay the public debt in the same currency we pay you and the same you pay each other, and thus save millions more in the pockets of the people.

"If we pay the rich in gold we will pay you in gold. If we pay you in paper money, we will pay the pletheoric bond-holders in paper money.

"We will enact laws to enable you to buy your goods where you can buy the cheapest, and sell where you can get the best price.

"We will protect labor from the encroachment of capital.

"We will leave each State to govern itself, limited only by the Federal Constitution.

"We will reduce the army in the South, and send them to the plains to protect the frontier and new routes to the Far West.

"We will restore commerce, peace and good will between the North and South.

"We will reduce taxes, both State and National.

"We will lessen the office-holders, and release you from taxation to support them.

"We will enact laws inside and not outside the Constitution.

"We will restore peace at home and maintain your honor abroad.

"We will inaugurate a day of moderation, order and good will, instead of hate and ill will as now taught by Jacobin politicians.

"We will give equal rights to all, and grant exclusive privileges to none.

"We will substitute calm statesmanship for mad Jacobinism.

"We will make pets of negroes no longer at the expense of the whites, nor force suffrage for them at the expense and against the will of those who have created and maintained the Government."

HOED CROPS.—Hoed crops are the most costly in labor of any which the farmer grows. Therefore, they should be the most profitable. The greatest difficulty which the farmer in this country has to contend with in order to make his business profitable, is the price of labor; and as he is obliged to bestow a great deal on his hoed crops, he should take care, by judicious management and use of the products, to make his outlay of capital remunerative. How to do this should be a subject of much thought.

Corn and potatoes are the two most largely grown and important of this class of products. One rule which will apply to both, which the wise farmer will act upon, is to obtain as large a yield as possible from each acre planted. This will diminish the amount of labor in proportion to the product obtained. Every bushel will, therefore cost less than when the yield is small. The next important point is to get the best return for the crop. As corn is the best reliance of the stock feeder in this country, and as manure from stock is essential to grow continued large crops, it is obvious that skillful feeding to stock is the most remunerative disposal that can be made of the corn crop. Hence, good breeds, ample shelter, and proper care, are indispensible adjuncts. In short, if labor has cost you too much, resolve to plant less ground, but raise more per acre. This can easily be done if you will only set about it. Next, determine that your corn shall produce more pounds of meal per bushel than heretofore. This you can accomplish by a timely and judicious selection of improved breeds of stock, and more skill employed in handling them. No farmer should be satisfied if he cannot improve every year on his past method. Thought and energy applied to your business will do this.

The potatoe crop is always sold for cash, and this produces no manure for the land. For this reason, it is a very exhausting crop, and no farmer can persist long in growing it largely without impoverishing his land. On account of their bulk, potatoes cannot be grown profitably a great distance from market. On the right sort of land, and near market, they usually produce a good return of money per acre; and potatoe growers should devote part of the proceeds of the crop towards the purchasing of manure to renovate the land. Plant less, manure more, and your labor will bring greater profit.—Rural New Yorker.

SCHOOLMASTER.—"Bill Smith, what is a widow?"

Bill—"A widow is a married woman that hain't got no husband 'cause he's dead."

Master—"Very well, what is a widower?"

Bill—"A widdiwer is a man what runs arter widders."

Master—"Well Bill, that's not exactly according to Johnson, but it will do."

DEMOCRATIC STATE NOMINATIONS.

FOR AUDITOR GENERAL,

HON. CHARLES E. BOYLE,

of Fayette County.

FOR SURVEYOR GENERAL,

GEN. WELLINGTON H. ENT,

of Columbia County.

DELEGATE ELECTIONS.

On Saturday next, the Democrats of this county, will hold elections to choose delegates to represent them in the Democratic County Convention to be held on Monday next. We doubt not that entire harmony will prevail at these elections and that the very best men will be chosen as delegates. We hope, too, that every district will be represented in the Convention, as it is highly important that such an organization of the party be effected on Monday next, as will be active and efficient from that day forward until the closing of the polls in next November. The Convention will meet not merely to nominate a ticket, but to take measures for the prosecution of the work of the campaign. In less than two weeks, the great struggle for the Presidency will be fairly commenced, and hence we should be ready to enter the field. Let there be a full Convention, and let the prominent, active Democrats of the county, whether they be delegates or not, assemble here on next Monday, for the purpose of consultation and interchange of views. Bedford county must do her whole duty this fall. The enemy is distracted and dispirited. Now is the time to strike for a grand and glorious victory, a triumph that will bury the Radical faction so deep that the trump of resurrection will not re-call them from their sepulchre.

YATES AND SUMNER.

The Radical platform made at Chicago, and the Radical gospel according to Yates and Sumner, are quite different things. On Tuesday last, in the U. S. Senate, these apostles of Radicalism, delivered sermons to their brethren on the subject of Negro Suffrage. They took the ground that Congress must establish equality of Suffrage without distinction of race or color, in all of the States. The Chicago platform, it will be remembered, admits the power of Congress to do this only so far as the Southern States are concerned, but, Yates and Sumner declare that it follows as a natural consequence, that if Congress has the right to regulate the suffrage in the Southern States, it has the right to do so in the remainder of the States. Sumner and Yates are the pioneers of Radical progress, and it will not be long until Wilson, Pomeroy, Chandler, Cameron, Conkling, Sherman and the rest of the Radical leaders, will follow in their path. But here the question arises, will the masses follow likewise? Will those men who style themselves "Republicans" consent to the forcing of Negro Suffrage upon the people by Congress? What will the "Republicans" of Connecticut, Ohio, Michigan, Minnesota and Kansas, who have lately assisted in voting down Negro Suffrage, say to this new stride towards the Africanization of the government? What will the white "Republicans" of Pennsylvania (for there are two sorts in this country white and black) do, now that Grant's fuglemen in the U. S. Senate, proclaim that, in spite of the Chicago platform, they will establish Negro Suffrage in the Keystone State, by act of Congress? "Republicans" of Bedford county, we ask you to read the Congressional proceedings of Wednesday, 10th inst., and judge for yourselves whether you can sustain Yates and Sumner and the Grant and Colfax Negro Suffrage party.

RADICAL SPLIT IN PHILADELPHIA.

A serious rupture has taken place in the Radical party in Philadelphia.—In the convention to nominate a candidate for District Attorney, in that city, the other day, W. B. Mann, the candidate of the office-holders' "ring" was nominated, whereupon sixty-four delegates withdrew from the convention and nominated Isaac Hazlehurst. The Press says that this division endangers the success of the whole Radical ticket in Philadelphia, and intimates that it may have so deleterious an influence upon the prospects of Grant, that even he may be defeated by it. The fact is, the Radical party is demoralized everywhere, and needs but the coup de grace of a good Democratic nomination to destroy it utterly.

THE Harrisburg Patriot comes to us greatly enlarged and otherwise improved. It is certainly a good newspaper, as well as sound in doctrine. We commend it to those of our readers who desire to take a morning daily.

BLACK END FOREMOST.

The Grant Radicals have passed a bill "admitting" North Carolina, South Carolina, Arkansas, Louisiana, and Florida, to representation in Congress on the black basis. These desperate political tricksters, kept these States out of Congress, until by force of arms, they were enabled to enfranchise all the negroes, and disfranchise a large proportion of the intelligent whites, in other words, until, through negro ballots, they could control the election of Members of Congress and U. S. Senators. Such knavery as this would not be tolerated in any decent community, but it is esteemed as a virtue in the fortieth Congress. We would like to know the private opinion of some of our "Republican" friends upon this point.

YOU DO, EH?

"I indorse the resolutions."
So says Ulysses Grant.

But will the people of the United States endorse him?

You "indorse the resolutions," Mr. Grant. You "indorse" the vile tyranny of Congressional reconstruction, the cowardly forcing of Negro Suffrage upon an unwilling people, the monstrous attempt to put eight millions of white people under the domination of four millions of ignorant blacks, the atrocious wickedness of the disfranchisement of hundreds of thousands of free white American citizens, the blood-sucking policy of the Freedman's Bureau, (that National boarding school for worthless black lazaroni,) and even the shameless shuffling on the great vital financial question which to-day interests so deeply every man and woman in the United States. You "indorse" all this, and coolly add, "let us have peace."

Yes, you would "make a desert and call it peace!"

You would put the white man in the power of your black tools, you would put the negro's torch to the white man's dwelling, the negro's knife to the white man's throat.

You would make another St. Domingo of the Southern States, trample out what the war has left of the arts of civilization and leave in its stead the desolation, the howling wilderness of African barbarism.

Or, as the only alternative, you would keep your standing army of fifty battalions, quartered upon the people, to destroy their lisberties and eat "out their substance."

These things, Mr. Grant, would be the inevitable consequence of your enforcement of the resolutions which you "indorse." If you were Ulysses S. Grant, multiplied seventy times seven by your own multiple, the American people would not sustain you upon such a platform. As it is, Gen. Scott's fate is but a slight foreshadowing of what is in store for you.—Patriot.

"Murder will Out."

The Pittsburg Republican is neither a Democratic or Republican paper. It is what might be termed a "go between the two parties." In an issue a short time ago, it contained the following startling editorial:

There are thousands of people in the land who believe that John Wilkes Booth was hired by now prominent Radicals to slay Abraham Lincoln, and that they then treacherously gave him up to destruction by their minions in hope of covering their tricks. The closeness with which the other prisoners were guarded from outside intercourse; unfairness of their trial and the haste with which they were put out of the world all give color to the suspicion, whilst the plot now maturing to complete the work which the assassin left unfinished—i. e. the destruction of Andrew Johnson—seem to fill the measure of proof against them.—Abraham Lincoln fell a victim not when he performed his most arbitrary and hostile acts against secession, but at a time when he was healing the wounds of war, holding out the olive branch, appearing to gather the "repentant rebels," into the old Union. Andrew Johnson is following in the last footsteps made by Abraham Lincoln."

What a delightful record this damnable abolition party will leave posterity. Accounts of their murders, robberies, pillages, false imprisonments, adulteries, drunkenness, intrigues and general debaucheries will complete a criminal calender never before equalled or to be again dreamed of.

Changed its Politics.

The Clinton (Ill.) County Independent, formerly a Republican paper, is now published in the interest of the democracy. Its editor. Mr. George Sellers, who has been a Republican ever since the organization of that party, says he could stand it no longer. We quote the following from his last issue:

"Nearly all the decent men who ever belonged to the Republican or Radical party have left, and many more will leave it as soon as they learn the truth. Chief Justice Chase, Senators Trumbull, Grimes, Ross, Fessenden, Cowan, Doolittle, Dixon, and even the President of the United States have left the party since it fell into the hands of such dirty thieves as Beast Butler, Dirty Work Logan, and other original fanatics and abolitionists like Stevens and Sumner."

—Old Thad. declared that if Johnson was not removed, Grant would carry but two northern States, Massachusetts and Vermont. Does the old infernal still hold to the opinion? He is awfully, maliciously silent.

—The Bangor Democrat, one of the ablest and staunchest Democratic papers in New England, says:

"The misdemeanor of which Johnson is guilty, is neglecting to take the rascals about him by the throat and strangling them, when he had the power to do it."

—Thomas Harris, colored, convicted at Staunton, Va., of an outrage on two small colored girls, has been sentenced to the penitentiary for thirty years.

THE WILL OF MR. BUCHANAN.

LANCASTER, June 10.—The will of the late ex-President Buchanan was filed in the Register's office to-day. The following are the bequests: $2,000 to the poor of Lancaster city, in addition to $4,000 previously donated; $1,000 to the Presbyterian church Lancaster, of which deceased was a member; $5,000 to Esther Parker, housekeeper of deceased, being in addition to $2,000 dollars heretofore given her; $2,000 to Martha J. Lane, widow of James B. Lane, deceased. Peter Hillier, Mary Smithgall and Lizzie Stoner, servants, 100 each. The books, plate and furniture to Mrs. Harriet L. Johnson, Revey Buchanan and J. Buchanan Henry, to be divided equally among them, all owing Esther Parker $200 out of the amount.

The balance of the estate, real and personal, is directed to be divided among his heirs, as follows: One-fourth to Mrs. Harriet L. Johnson, one-fourth to Revey Buchanan, neither of whom are to be charged with considerable advancements which have been made to them, and the balance to J. Buchanan Henry, son of his sister, Harriet B. Lane, and to the three sons of his nephew, James B. Lane, deceased, Mary E. Durnam, daughter of his sister, Mary Yates, deceased, to Maria B. Weaver, Jessie Mayaw (formerly Jessie Weaver,) James B. Weaver and John B. Weaver.

The testator states that "whilst feeling full confidence both in the integrity and business capacity of Edward E. Johnson, the husband of my niece, Harriet Lane Johnson, I yet deem it prudent to secure to her a maintenance against the unforseen contingencies of future years. For this purpose I appoint my hereinafter-named executors, Hiram B. Swarr and Edward Y. Buchanan, or the survivor of them, trustee or trustees, and direct them to retain in their hands, and invest and manage, to the best advantage, free and discharged from the debts and control of her said husband, two-thirds of the amount bequeathed her as my residuary legatee."

The testator appoint Rev. Edward Y. Buchanan, his brother, and Hiram B. Swarr, Esq., to be the executors of his last will and testament.

The Wheatland property is given to Harriet Lane Johnson, niece of the testator, for which she pays $12,000 out of her residuary share of the estate. The will is dated at Wheatland, January 27, 1866; and a codocil of the 29th of August, 1867, provides that Wm. B. Reed is to have $1,000 to pay the expenses and secure the publication of a biographical work of the deceased; and to Mrs. Mary L. Reed, wife of Wm. B. Reed, the deceased gives $5,000, a legacy for her separate use and benefit, as a compensation for the work Mr. Wm. B. Reed has undertaken to perform. All the deceased's private papers, correspondence, etc., are directed to be given to Wm. B. Reed for this purpose. The estate is estimated at $300,000.

PETERSON'S MAGAZINE for July is before us. This number, we see, begins the fifty-fourth volume. Like old wine, "PETERSON" gets better and better. It has now been published for twenty-seven years, and its unrivalled circulation proves it the most popular of the ladies magazines. The present issue is one of the best we have ever seen. A splendid steel engraving, "Undine and the Knight," leads off; then follows a mammoth colored steel fashion plate, with five full length figures; and then we have numerous wood-cuts of new bonnets, capes, bodies, &c., &c., besides a score of patterns for the work-table; among them, two printed in colors. The literary contents, as usual, are excellent. Now is a good time to subscribe for "PETERSON." Terms, $2.00 a year. To clubs, three copies for $4.50, or five for $8.00, and in this latter case, an extra copy for a premium Address Chas. J. Peterson, 306 Chestnut St., Philadelphia.

DEMOREST'S MONTHLY for July, prompt as usual, and with an aditional quantity of Summer Literature, is the most useful and interesting of all the parlor periodicals, reliable from beginning to end, and better than that, its tone is elevated and earnest, very unlike the frivolous artificiality that disgraces so many fashion journals. The fashions are a feature, as ever. Ladies in the country think they cannot make a garment without DEMOREST'S MAGAZINE, and there is in addition to the treasured patterns, always a fund of useful and valuable information upon all household and domestic subjects. W. Jennings Demorest, 473 Broadway, New York. $3.00, yearly.

THE Lebanon Advertiser came to us last week enlarged to a thirty-six column sheet and dressed in new type from top to toe. They didn't make any better papers any where than the Advertiser, and we are rejoiced to note this evidence of its prosperity.

IMPORTANT BOUNTY CIRCULAR.—It is stated that the Secretary of the Treasury has issued circular instructions establishing regulations for the issuing and paying of duplicate bounty checks. The owner of a soldier's bounty check, which may be lost, must at once notify the Assistant Treasurer upon whom it is drawn to stop payment. He must send affidavits to the Paymaster General or the Paymaster who issued the check, setting forth the circumstances of the loss, and that it was not endorsed in blank or to bearer. He must also file a bond, a form of which is furnished by the Paymasters who issue checks.

Hon. Schuyler Colfax, Radical candidate for Vice President, was an original howler for impeachment. AN exchange says that the latest dodge of confidence men is the following: A man contrives to lose a ten or twenty dollar counterfeit bill where he is sure it will be found by one who has had the honor to be selected for his victim. He then offers a reward of two, three or five dollars for the lost money. If the finder keeps the bill, it is of course no loss. If he be honestly inclined, and returns it to the owner, the latter has no change—the lost bill was all the money he had in the world; would the finder be so kind as to take his reward out of the bill, and give him back the change.—This is done by the unsuspecting victim, and the sharper with his good money "stands not upon the order of his going," but "lights out" at once. In such cases the principle laid down in the trite maxim, "Honesty is the best policy" is open to debate.

Social Equality.

A cotemporary says: "The agents of the Freedmen's Bureau and some of the Federal military officers, who are quartered in the Southern communities, bitterly complain that society ignores and excludes them from all recognition of gentlemen who uphold the infamy of negro equality, and these should be. If a white man argues that the negro is the equal of his own race, let him seek and find among the negroes a fit and congenial companionship. It is the practical application of his own doctrine, to which he cannot object without exposing the mean and corrupt hypocrisy of his pretended creed. The real white people don't believe the negroes are their equals, though they entertain for them the kindest feelings and always treat them with respect and justice. If the scallawags prefer the Abyssinians it merely illustrates the principle that men always rise or sink to their proper level."

WASHINGTON NEWS.

WASHINGTON, June 10.

RECONSTRUCTION.

It is intimated in Radical circles, that after the passage of the omnibus reconstruction bill, now pending in the Senate, Congress will not undertake any further legislation toward the admission of the Southern Sates this session. The States which will then be left out are Virginia, Mississippi, Florida and Texas, and the Radical party leaders, at present, seem to be in no hurry to let them in, as the majority of their electoral votes will probably be cast against their candidate for the Presidency. The Senate is still discussing the repudiation clause in the bogus Constitution of Georgia. It meets with considerable opposition even on the Radical side of the chamber, and in addition to its violation of an express provision of the Constitution of the United States, which declares that "no State shall pass any law impairing the obligation of contracts," it is simply wholesale thieving. Nevertheless, it is supported by some of the leading Republican Senators.

THE INQUISITION.

Butler's "inquisition" was in session in the Judiciary Committee room of the House again to-day, and Postmaster-General Randall was examined as a witness. Mr. Bingham has returned to the city, and a quorum of the so-called managers being here, it is understood that Mr. Woolley will be called to-morrow. It is said that during the examination of Mr. Ransom Van Valkenburg, yesterday, Mr. Butler asked the witness what he had been doing in Washington so long? To which the latter replied, "None of your business, sir." The examination of this witness was further continued, and the Express of this afternoon publishes the following report thereof:

Mr. Butler asked: What become of the money that Mr. Woolley left in his room on the centre table?

Answer—I have it in my pocket.

Butler—Will you produce it and the envelope containing the other papers?

Answer—I will produce the money, but the papers you shall not have.

The money was then laid on the table, amounting to $17,100, in seventeen one thousand dollar notes, and small bills making the one hundred dollars.

Immediately after Butler received the money he ordered the witness out of the room, but he declined to leave, giving as a reason that he (witness) was responsible for the money, and he could not leave it in his (Butler's) hands. Butler insisted on the witness leaving the room, but the gentleman refused, without he could take the money with him. At last, B. was forced to succumb, and the money was counted in the custodian's presence.

Butler counted the money, the clerk of the committee taking the numbers of the notes.

After the counting, Butler, looking sideways, said to the witness: I find, sir, here sixteen thousand one hundred dollars.

Witness—Mr. Butler, if you will take the trouble to look under that piece of paper near you, I think you will find a one thousand dollar note, which I have no doubt was placed there through mistake.

General Logan, rising from the sofa, said: Yes, Butler, I see one corner of it sticking out.

Butler—Oh, yes; I did not notice it before.

WASHINGTON, June 12.

THE RECONSTRUCTION BILL.

The House to-day took up the omnibus reconstruction bill with the Senate amendments. After an animated debate, the question was taken on a motion to strike out "Florida" from the bill, which was disagreed to by a vote of 45 to 99. The other amendments of the Senate were then adopted, and the bill as amended was finally passed by a strict party vote. It provides for the admission of North and South Carolina, Georgia, Alabama, Florida and Louisiana to representation in Congress upon the ratification of the fourteenth amendment to the Constitution of the United States by said States. The bill will probably be sent to the President to-morrow, and the general impression is that it will be vetoed.

RADICAL OUTRAGE.

The outrageous conduct of Mr. S J. Bowen, socalled Mayor of Washington, and his associates in the City Councils, caused the majority of the two boards (Aldermen and Common Council) to unite in joint convention, last evening, and elect Mr. Thomas E. Lloyd, Mayor of the city, ad interim, or until it can be legally ascertained who was elected Mayor at the election on the first instant. The Radicals, determined to perpetuate their rule, have appealed to the Senate through Bowen, and to-day a bill was reported from the District Committee legalizing the lawless acts of the City Register in issuing certificates to defeated candidates for the Common Council, refusing to deliver ballot-boxes, &c., &c. This bill, it is understood, is to be rushed through Congress in order to prevent the proper legal tribunal from ousting Bowen, and confirming the election of certain Councilmen whose right to serve has been denied by their defeated Radical opponents. The Conservatives of the city encountered and defeated the Freedmen's Bureau, and now they are met by extraordinary legislation in the Congress of the United States, which, it seems, is about to step in and decide the contest in favor of Radical candidates who were fairly beaten at the polls. What next?

Influencing the Votes of Senators on the Impeachment.

The Washington correspondent of the Louisville Journal says:

The following laconic messages, which passed over the wires between Parson Brownlow, of Tennessee, and General Stokes, will be produced by the Democrats if they can get a hearing before the nosing committee:

KNOXVILLE, May 3.
How will Fowler vote?
W. G. BROWNLOW.

WASHINGTON, May 3.
Don't know. Think he's all right.
W. B. STOKES.

KNOXVILLE, May 4.
If you ain't certain, pump him.
W. G. BROWNLOW.

WASHINGTON, May 4.
I can't. He won't discuss the question. I fear he's shaky.
W. B. STOKES.

KNOXVILLE, May 5.
Tell him if he'll resign and let me appoint you in his place I'll make him judge of the Supreme Court in place of Harrison, who will make way for him.
W. G. BROWNLOW.

WASHINGTON, May 6.
He won't resign. W. B. STOKES.

KNOXVILL, May 6.
Not profanely, but religiously, tell him to go to hell.
W. G. BROWNLOW.

Campaign Gazette!

REPUBLICAN GOVERNMENT, Civil Liberty and Constitutional Rights!

NO STANDING ARMY!

NO FREEDMEN'S BUREAU!

NO NEGRO STATES!

White Men Must Rule America!

"Light, more light!" is the startling cry of the honest people groping in the darkness of Radicalism. "Light, more light!" shouts the groaning taxpayer, bending under the load which a Radical Congress has heaped upon him. "Light, more light!" is the pleading cry that comes to us from those who earnestly seek a remedy for the disease that is tugging at the vitals of the nation. Look and ye shall see! Read and ye shall know! The BEDFORD GAZETTE, for the Presidential Campaign, will be a complete compendium of political news, speeches, documents and every thing that pertains to a political canvass in the columns of a weekly newspaper. It will be published from the first day of June until the seventh of November, next, at the following low terms, cash in advance:

One copy,	$ .75
Ten copies,	6.00
Twenty copies,	11.00
Fifty copies,	25.00

Not only should every Democrat have his county newspaper, during the coming campaign, but he should likewise make it a point to furnish his Republican neighbor a copy. This is the plan upon which our opponents have acted for years, and it is about time that Democrats do something of the same sort. NOW, GO TO WORK and put your Democratic newspaper into the hands of every Republican who will read. If you will do this you will accomplish more good in six months than you will by any other means in six years. Democratic politicians, throughout the county, are enabled, by the above low terms, to circulate Democratic newspapers at a very small cost. We appeal to them to see to getting up clubs, and to see to it in time. Now is the time to sow the seed. After a little while the heat of passion and prejudice will beam upon the public mind in all its intense fierceness, and then seed-time will have passed. Friends, let us hear from you!

ENLARGEMENT.

At the close of the present volume, on the first of August next, the GAZETTE will be enlarged to thirty-two columns, and will then be one of the largest weeklies in the State. As this enlargement will entail considerable expense upon us, we ask all who are in arrears to pay up promptly. Cannot one thousand of our subscribers pay in advance. On the first of August we will begin the publication of a Roll of Honor, which will contain the names of all subscribers who pay for their paper in advance. Now friends, let us see whether this list cannot be made to run up to one thousand names. One half of our subscribers, at least, should pay in advance.

A. Allen's Impoved (new style) Hair Restorer or Dressing, (in one bottle.) Every Druggist sells it. Price One Dollar. w4

WE DON'T WANT ANY.—During the past two weeks we have received the proof sheets and prospectuses of about a half dozen live's of Gen Grant, and a dozen offers to secure portraits and badges of the same. We don't want any in ours. We are not that kind.

GEO. MARDORFF,
Ch'n. Dem. Co. Com.

W. C. SCHAEFFER, Sec'y.

TRY AGAIN.—The Inquirer, of the 5th inst., endeavored to slur the gallant Democratic soldier, Gen Hancock, by referring to him as having taken a conspicuous part in the court martial that tried and condemned Mrs. Surratt. Now, the editors of that delectable sheet either knew that they were publishing deliberate falsehoods, which they could easily palm off on their readers as truth, or their knowledge of recent events is sadly deficient. We are charitable enough to suppose that the former is the case. Gen. Hunter, a Radical of the deepest, darkest hue, and not Gen. Hancock, was President of the court martial. The latter was not even a member of the court, but at the time of the trial was in command of the troops in the Middle Military Division," which comprised the District of Columbia, Maryland, Delaware, Pennsylvania, W. Virginia, and part of old Virginia—head-quarters at Washington, and had to obey such military orders as the President saw proper to make in the case.

THE modesty of the "fighting" editor of this paper, were he at home, would prevent the following flattering notice, from the Bedford county Press, from being copied into this paper, but, regardless of consequences, "ye local" takes the responsibility of doing so.

PROMOTED.—B. F. Meyers, Esq., for twelve years past editor of the Bedford Gazette, has purchased a controlling interest in the Patriot & Union, a daily Democratic journal published at Harrisburg. The Patriot & Union is a journal of considerable pretensions and influence, and being published at the capitol of the State is regarded as the central organ of the Democratic party in Pennsylvania.

Mr. Meyers is a political writer of no ordinary calibre, and the GAZETTE having greatly improved under his control, we know the Patriot and Union will be considerably invigorated by this addition to its editorial corps. He will still retain his interest in the GAZETTE, and after the close of the twelfth volume, (August) under his supervision, it will be enlarged to an eight column paper, making it among the largest weeklies published in the State. P.

All right, brother P., except that you forget that Morning Patriot is the name of the enlarged and improved paper in which Mr. M. has a "controlling interest."

A GOOD STOPPING PLACE.—By reference to our advertising columns, it will be seen that J. Morrison, Esq., formerly of the Morrison House, has taken charge of the Exchange Hotel, Huntingdon, Pa., and has thoroughly renovated, refurnished and supplied it with all the modern conveniences and improvements. The dining-room has been removed to the first floor and is large and airy. His table groans with the "good things" of the season, and they are dished up in a manner that cannot fail to please everybody.—Mr. Morrison is a prince of landlords and has the rare gift of making every one at home in his house. Give him a trial.

THE WHEAT CROP of Bedford county, from present appearances, will be very heavy. Since the introduction of grain drills, the crop has increased in proportion to the number of drills used. We are informed that the fields seeded by the Willoughby Gum Roller Drills are more evenly covered and will yield more grain to the acre than those put out by any other process. Every farmer should own a Gum Roller Grain Drill.

THE POTATO BUG.—As the period for this troublesome insect to begin its devastations is near at hand, we call attention of farmers to the following remedies, which have been tried and pronounced highly successful:

1st. Take half a bushel of saw dust and a pint of coal oil; mix well, and sow broad-cast over the potato hills. Repeat the dose if the bugs make their appearance at any subsequent period.

2d. Make a weak brine of common salt and water; sprinkle the brine on the vines after sunset; but take care not to put on too much, or the tops will wilt.

Either of the above remedies will drive off the potato bug dering the entire season.

IRVINE, (the Regulator), says he has boots and shoes, queensware, glassware, notions, &c., &c., for everybody. Go and see.

HYDROPHOBIA.—We see by our exchanges that numerous mad dogs have already been killed; and in some places a systematic onslaught has been made upon the whole canine species, by the civil authorities. The Philadelphia Evening Star says the best application for the bite of a dog is spirits of hartshorn, and this should be applied whether the animal appears rabid or not.—Medical observation shows that about one person in twenty, bitten by mad dogs become hydrophobic. As the hydrophobia season is now at hand, the public should be reminded that a dog ought not to be immediately killed if he has bitten a person, although he may appear to be mad, because such animals, when allowed to become quiet and composed, have often returned to a perfectly quiet and natural condition, and thus the mind of the person bitten has been saved from most terrible forebodings.

DESTROYED BY FIRE.—We were sorry to learn of the destruction by fire, on Wednesday last, the house of Mr. Abraham Shaffer, of West Providence township, with all its contents except a bureau and a few other articles that are of little value. The family were all absent at the time, except a servant girl of about twelve years of age, that was left churning. Shortly after the departure of the family, the servant girl visited a near neighbor, and when arriving there, she looked back upon the house she had just left and beheld it in flames.

Mr. Shaffer is a young man, of industrious habits and most that he had accumulated was the result of hard labor, which makes the loss severely felt by him. This is the third house destroyed by fire in that neighborhood, within quite a recent period, which gives room to suspicion an incendiary has been at work there.

Loss about $600.00. No insurance.—Bedford County Press.

MASONIC DEMONSTRATION.—The laying of the corner stone of the Masonic Temple on Broad street, in the city of Philadelphia, on the 24th of June, will be the grandest Masonic ovation on record. Eight thousand Masons will be in rank, all appearing in full Masonic dress. The procession will form on Broad street at eight o'clock, countermarching almost the entire length of that magnificent street. Some twelve of the best bands have been engaged for the occasoin. At high meridian the corner stone will be laid by Richard Vaux, Esq., and an address delivered by Judge Jones, of Reading, the President Judge, at present, of that Judicial District. The masonic odes will be rendered on the occasion by two hundred of the best choristers. A grand banquet will be given at the Academy of Music in the evening, where the ceremonies will be continued, table lodge opened, and where speech, song and sentiment will make the occasion one long to be remembered by the craft.

IMPORTANT TO FISHERS.—An old fisherman states that if a man wants to catch fish whenever he visits the river, let him not pick the full moon days to do it in. He gives a philosophical reason for the advice—whether sound or not we cannot decide. He says, when the moon is full, the nights being bright, enables the fish to do all their foraging in the night time. Of course, having their wants supplied, they lie up all day, and consequently their is a scarcity of "bites." Under a new-moon season, the fish have to sleep at night, and work by day; and that makes the length in the fisherman's string.

DANGEROUS COUNTERFEITS.—Counterfeit $100 National bank notes are in circulation. They are exceedingly well executed, and will deceive the majority of persons in whose hands they fall. The engraving is very fine, and the printing as perfect as it could be done. These notes are on the Central National Bank of New York, and on the Ohio National Bank of Cincinnati. Twenty-dollar bills altered from fives on the First National Bank of Boston are also in circulation.

GONE UP.—Since the failure of impeachment, followed by the disastrous defeat of the Radicals in Oregon, the visages of the impeachers have become so elongated, that the price of a shave has advanced fifty per cent. The Democrats will give them such a clean shave in November, that no expense need be incurred on that account for the next four years. Selah!

FINISHED.—Jacob Bowser has just finished his large store room at the corner of Pitt and Richard streets.—With part of the building raised, and a new coat of paint, the old "Colonnade" looks rejuvinated. Miller and Bowser have now one of the finest store rooms in the country, with an immense stock of goods at prices to suit the times.

R. W. BERKSTRESSER & Co., have just received a large and splendid assortment of goods, which they are now opening. They make a specialty of ready-made clothing, hats and gents' furnishing goods, and we would advise everybody to go and examine their stock, as we feel sure you will be suited from top to foot, in the best style, and at moderate prices.

THE Poor Directors will meet hereafter on the first Wednesday of each month instead of the first Tuesday as heretofore. Those having business to tranact will please to take notice.

WARM WEATHER has again come and so has Heckerman's cold, sparkling soda water. This is a wholesome and most delicious drink. They have syrups to suit the tastes of all.

OSTER & Co. have put in a new advertisement. Read it.

THE best coal oil sells for 15 cents a quart, at Heckerman's drug store.

SPECIAL NOTICES.

REASONS WHY.

We are enabled to offer superior inducements to purchasers of clothing, to which your attention is respectfully invited.

We have a business experience of more than 25 years, have been longer established than any house in our trade in Philadelphia.

We employ sufficient capital to make ALL PURCHASES FOR CASH, which, together with the fact that our large business enables us to buy in large amounts in first hands, thereby saving all profits of jobbers and middlemen, give us advantages in purchasing at the lowest rates, SHARED BY NO HOUSE IN OUR TRADE.

We sell only for cash and having no losses from bad debts to provide for, the paying customer is not TAXED TO HELP PAY THE DEBT OF ANOTHER who does not pay, as is inevitably the case in a business where credit is given.

We employ the best talent in all departments, which, with long experience, enable us to manufacture garments SUPERIOR IN EVERY RESPECT—equalled by few—surpassed by none.

We have the largest establishment for the manufacture and sale of clothing in Philadelphia, extending through from 518 Market street to 511 Minor street, occupied exclusively by ourselves, also a branch store at 600 Broadway, New York, and keep at all times of

MEN'S, YOUTH'S and BOYS' READY-MADE CLOTHING, the largest stock and best assortment in the city, from which any person can be accurately fitted at once, as well, or better, than by garments made to order, our large stock comprising every size of all styles of goods.

We have recently added to our previous stock a full assortment of CHILDREN'S GARIBALDI AND OTHER SUITS, equal to any in the city in style, trimming, and make; which are sold at lower prices than have hitherto been known in Philadelphia. They, with all our Boys' and Youth's goods, are kept on the first floor, nearest the front, convenient for ladies. We have also recently opened on our SECOND FLOOR A CUSTOM DEPARTMENT for the display of a choice selection of Foreign and Domestic Fabrics in the piece, which will be MADE UP TO ORDER, in the best style, by competent and skillful cutters and workmen. The advantage of dealing with a CASH HOUSE will be especially apparent in this department, upon a comparison of prices.

We guarantee our prices lower than the lowest elsewhere and also guarantee full satisfaction to every purchaser, and request, that should any cause of dissatisfaction exist with a purchase made, it may be reported to us, pledging ourselves, by exchange, refunding of money, or otherwise, to give full satisfaction in every case. (Samples and prices sent by mail when desired.)

An examination of our stock respectfully requested and your patronage, if the above statement of facts be satisfactorily demonstrated.

DR. S. I. TOBIAS' PULMONIC LIFE SYRUP, for the cure of Incipient Consumption, Coughs, colds, Croup, Asthma, Liver Complaints, Dyspepsia, and General Debility. For several years I have been urged by kind freinds, who have used, and been benefited by, my Life Syrup, to put it up for general sale; but few know the large expense, now that the country is flooded with Patent Medicines, which attend the same For years past I was reluctant to do so, as the capital required would be large, and I did not wish to curtail the operations of my Venetian Liniment business. But, thanks to the generous public, who have appreciated my Venetian Liniment, I am now able to do so, without any detriment to my large business in that medicine. The foundation of my success I attribute to attending to the manufacture of every drop myself, and shall do the same in regard to my Pulmonic Life Syrup. The Ingredients are perfectly harmless, but act on the Lungs and Liver with astonishing effect. Price 75 cents. Depot, No. 56 Cortlandt Street, New York, near Jersey City Ferry. A NEW REMEDY IN CONSUMPTION.—A Physician who had Consumption for several years, with frequent bleedings of the lungs, cured himself with a medicine unknown to the profession, when his case appeared hopeless. He is the only physician who has used it in his own person, or who has any knowledge of its virtues; and he can ascribe the degree of health he now enjoys to nothing but the use of his medicine; and nothing but utter despair and entire extinction of all hope of recovery, together with a want of confidence in all others induced him to hazard the experiment To those suffering with any disease of the Lungs he proffers a treatment he confidently believes will eradicate the disease. Medicine sent by express. Send for a circular or call on

PROSPECTUS.

THE MORNING PATRIOT.

The office of the late Patriot and Union having passed into the hands of the undersigned, they propose to supply a vacuum that has long existed in the newspaper press of interior Pennsylvania.

From some cause or other the reading masses of the Democratic party of the great interior counties of the State, have been compelled, either to do without the latest news, or patronize journals whose political sentiments were distasteful to them

THE MORNING PATRIOT is intended to supply this want.

Its proprietors are determined that no efforts shall be spared, on their part, to make it FULLY EQUAL, as a newspaper, to any of its competitors Whatever the electric wires are able to communicate, up to the hour of going to press, will be furnished in its columns every morning; and its large size will enable it to give quite as much reading matter as any of its contemporaries.

As an advocate of sound political sentiments, favoring no faction, clique or section, but devoting its entire energies to the good of the whole party; as a vehicle of the latest news, and a chronicler of passing events, we are determined that it shall not be excelled and we confidently appeal to a discriminating public for that appreciation and encouragement which are indispensable to success.

Single copies, THREE CENTS.

THE WEEKLY PATRIOT.

It is the determination of the proprietors of the PATRIOT to make their weekly journal fully equal to what the "Patriot and Union" was in its palmiest days. It will be one of the largest weekly papers in the State, and special pains will be taken to fill its columns with such reading matter as will be alike interesting and useful to the Farmer, the Mechanic and the Man of Business, and to make it an agreeable and welcome visitor to every family.

Every person should subscribe to the paper printed in his own county, and we do not mean to enter into competition with the local papers of the State. But, many people take their home paper and a city paper in addition. To such we send greeting.

MEDICAL.—DR. A. S. SMITH, having resumed the Practice of Medicine, solicits a generous share of the patronage of the community. Office in his residence, at St Clairsville.
He would call the attention of the public, and to those more immediately interested to the following: His health being too delicate to bear much of the fatigues and exposures consequent on general practice, he has adopted a speciality in the profession.
Soon after commencing practice, some twenty years since, he was attracted by the almost universality of female complaints, both in the married and single state. Partly from natural inclination, and in order to obtain success in practice, these complaints were made the subject of incessant study. These alterations, displacements and deranged functions of the organs peculiar to the female, are owing to that refined sense of delicacy on the part of the female, who, ignorant of the consequences, prefers to suffer in silence rather than expose her situation. Seldom cured by the general practitioner, who is prevented by this delicacy from acquiring by experience that tact and skill necessary to discriminate the exact change present, and contents himself with prescribing for the deranged functions, or overlooking the cause, simply for attendant nervous disorders, founding his prescriptions on a Plethoric Anaemonic state of the general system and the result is no benefit, as the number of the long suffering females bears ample testimony. Believing that he has, from long and special attention paid to them, acquired that skill in discriminating and experience in treating, he solicits the suffering to give him a call. No charges for consultation or examination. Visits made to all parts of the county.
Applications for medicines can be made in writing by accompanying stamp for return letter.—Medicines sent when desired. TERMS invariably cash for all medicines and instruments.

MANHOOD: HOW LOST, HOW RESTORED. Just published, a new edition of DR. CULVERWELL'S CELEBRATED ESSAY on the radical cure (without medicine) of SPERMATORRHŒA, or Seminal Weakness, Involuntary Seminal Losses, Impotency, Mental and Physical Incapacity, Impendiments to Marriages, etc.; also, CONSUMPTION, EPILEPSY and FITS, induced by self-indulgence or sexual extravagance.
☞Price in a sealed envelope, only 6 cents.
The celebrated author, in this admirable essay, clearly demonstrates from a thirty years' successful practice, that the alarming consequences of self-abuse may be radically cured without the dangerous use of internal medicine or the application of the knife; pointing out a mode of cure at once simple, certain, and effectual, by means of which every sufferer, no matter what his condition may be, may cure himself cheaply, privately, and radically.
☞This Lecture should be in the hands of every youth and every man in the land
Sent, under seal, in a plain envelope, to any address, postpaid, on receipt of six cents, or two post stamps. Also, Dr Culverwell's 'Marriage Guide,' price 25 cents. Address the Publishers, ESTEY'S COTTAGE ORGANS are still ahead of all competitors and stand unrivalled in POWER, PURITY OF TONE and BRILLIANCY, and all other points which go to make a first-class instrument.

The "VOX HUMANA TREMOLO" is the greatest of all modern improvements on reed instruments. It CHARMS and SURPRISES all who hear it, by its wonderful resemblance to the HUMAN VOICE. Do not confound this with the common tremolo in use. It is entirely different, and far superior to any other.

The effect of your "Tremolo" is entirely new to me, and is certainly the best I ever heard.—GEO. W. MORGAN. [The first Organist of America.
No Tremolo has yet been invented that will in any degree compare with this for beauty of effect. In fact, it seems to me to be absolutely perfect.—WM. A. JOHNSON, Pipe Organ Builder.
Estey's Cottage Organs are without a superior for exceedingly quick articulation and round tone—the essential features in instruments of this class.—GEO. JARDINE, Pipe Organ Builder.
The Cotttge Organ is the best of its class I ever saw, and the best adapted for church music of any in use.—C. HEINTZ, Organist, Findlay, O.
I am much pleased with the Cottage Organ which I purchased from you; it combines sweetness and power in an unusual degree, and is quite a favorite in our family circle.—BISHOP SIMPSON.
We know no organs of the class which possess so many valuable qualities.—INDEPENDENT.
For the parlor, its sweetness is remarkable; for the church it has a power more organ-like than anything we have seen.—METHODIST.
